

Lesson: Engineering the Perfect Container

Lesson: Engineering the Perfect Container

The most perfect container

This Lesson: Engineering the perfect container will allow students to reframe the egg as an incredible object. All frontiers will be explored like bioscience, genetics, evolution, biophysics, engineering, chemical power, sustainability, life sciences, compost, and mechanics. It is a tour de force of science.